

THE END

*Puff the Magic Dragon
Lived by the sea
And frolicked in the Autumn Mist
In a Land called Honolli*

*Little Jacky Paper
Loved that Rascal Puff
And brought him strings and ceiling wax
And other fancy stuff*

*Together they would travel
On a boat with billowed sails
Jacky kept a lookout perched
On Puff's gigantic tail*

*Noble Kings and princes
Would bow when e'er they came
Pirate ships would low'r their flags
When Puff roared out his name*

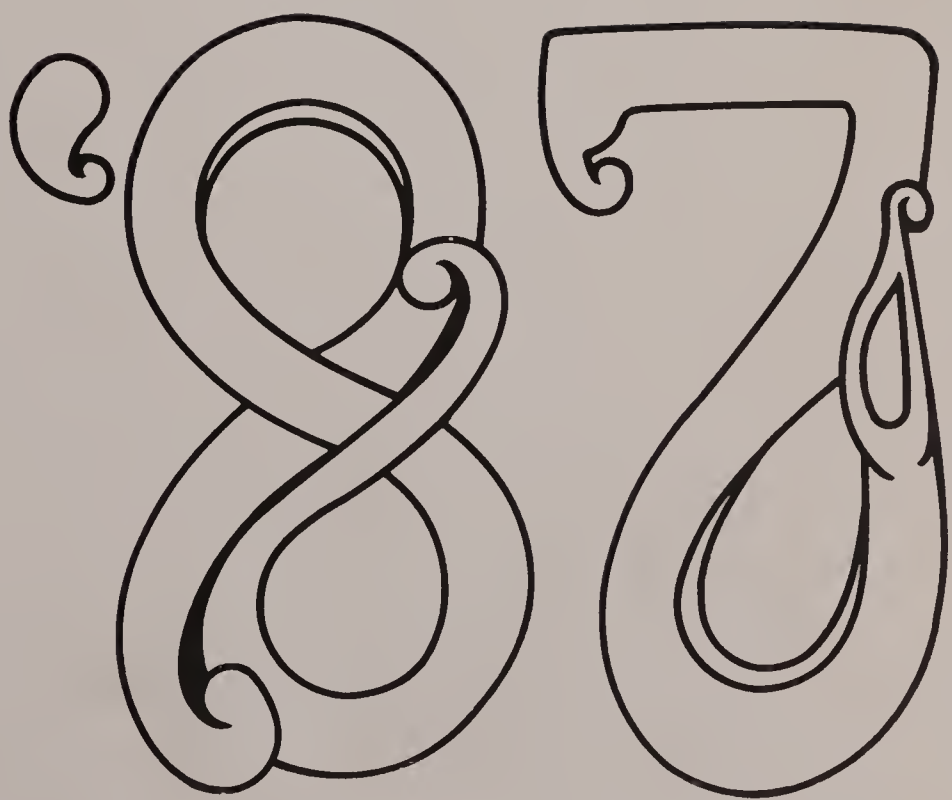

*A dragon lives forever
But not so little boys
Painted wings and giant swings
Made way for other toys*

*One gray night it happened
Jacky Paper came no more
And Puff, that mighty dragon
He ceased his fearless roar*

*His head was bent in sorrow
Green scales fell like rain
Puff no longer went to play
Along the Cherry Lane*

*Without his life-long friend
Puff could not be brave
So Puff that mighty dragon
Sadly slipped into his cave.*

*P. Yarrow

Within the covers of this scrapbook of memories are the painted wings and giant swings of years past. In a sense, each and every one of us has within him the child of Jacky Paper who must one day grow beyond the fanciful joys of childhood.

We must now abandon our past and look ahead to our future goals which no longer seem unattainable.

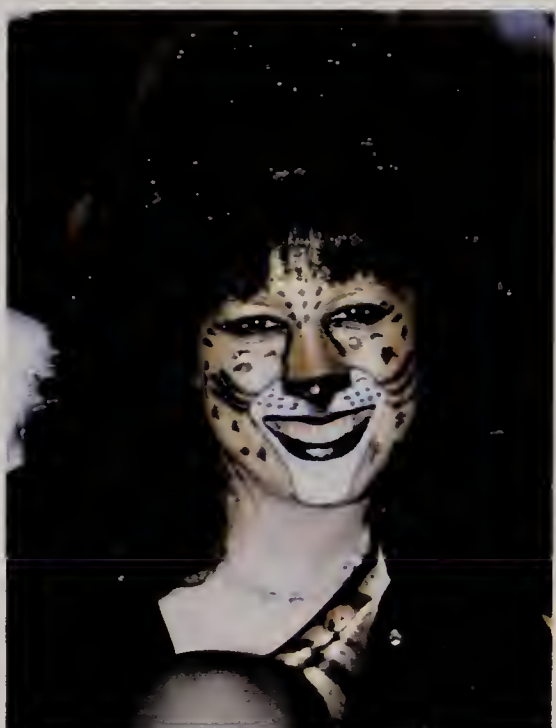

Old dreams must give way to new ones. Our "gray night" has arrived and it is with a pang of sorrow that we say good-bye to all those who have prepared us for this event. The future beckons us and we must heed its call.

And so we extend to you a cordial invitation to travel with us on a "boat with billowed sails" while we reminisce for the very last time as the

Dedication

What is dedication? Dedication to an athlete is the first building block to success. Being dedicated to practicing hard every day and to keep up their grades and their homework is a recognizable accomplishment.

We are lucky at our school because we have many dedicated athletes, but we have two people who have achieved the highest goals in their sport. Through their dedication and hard work they were able to achieve their goals. We present these next two pages to these outstanding athletes.

Dave Winship

Makes Nationals

Dave has come from a long line of runners. This is shown through the fact that he went undefeated in the Tri-Valley League throughout the past two years in cross country. This year has to be a dream come true for Dave. He went to New York for the Regional Meet against runners of the same age. Out of over 100 runners he came in first place. This enabled him to qualify for the National Meet in sunny California.

Out of 240 competitors Dave finished 38th. This is quite an accomplishment for a junior. Dave's future goal is to compete in the Boston Marathon. Good Luck Dave! Dave's running ability has helped make himself "THE BEST HE CAN BE!"

KIM TRITES

BREAKS

1000

Kim has been one of our best female athletes over her past five years at the high school. She has been a key person in all the three sports she played. But in basketball she has shown her best athletic ability. She led the team in scoring the past two years and also led the team in rebounding. Kim's greatest achievement in basketball was the fact that she became the first female ever to score over a 1000 points. The achievement will be a plateau of unreachable height for a long time to come. Congratulations Kim!

CLAS S DAY

RIGHT BY YOUR SIDE

All the memories
the years we shared together
You know I'll always smile
When I think what we've been through
All the times we've had
Whether good or bad
Somehow it came too soon

At times this world can get you down
and trap you in your fears
but if I hear you callin'
You know I will be there . . .

CHORUS

You know that I'll be there
I'm by your side
You know I'll care
I'm by your side
If ever you need a friend
just call my name
I'm by your side

You and I
The dreams we've shared together and now I'd like to think
We've made them all come true
It's time to face the world
Tomorrow and forever
It seems I never knew
Good-bye could be so hard

At times this world can get you down
and trap you in your fears
but if I hear you callin'
You know that I'll be there . . .

The winds change course abruptly and without cause.
Is there anything we can do
but accept it?

The leaves fall off
every year without fail.
Is there anything we
can do
but accept it?

There is a time in life
for everything.
A time to grow.
A time to change.
A time to die.
Is there anything we
can do
but accept it?

SENIOR BANQUET

NEVER SAY GOODBYE

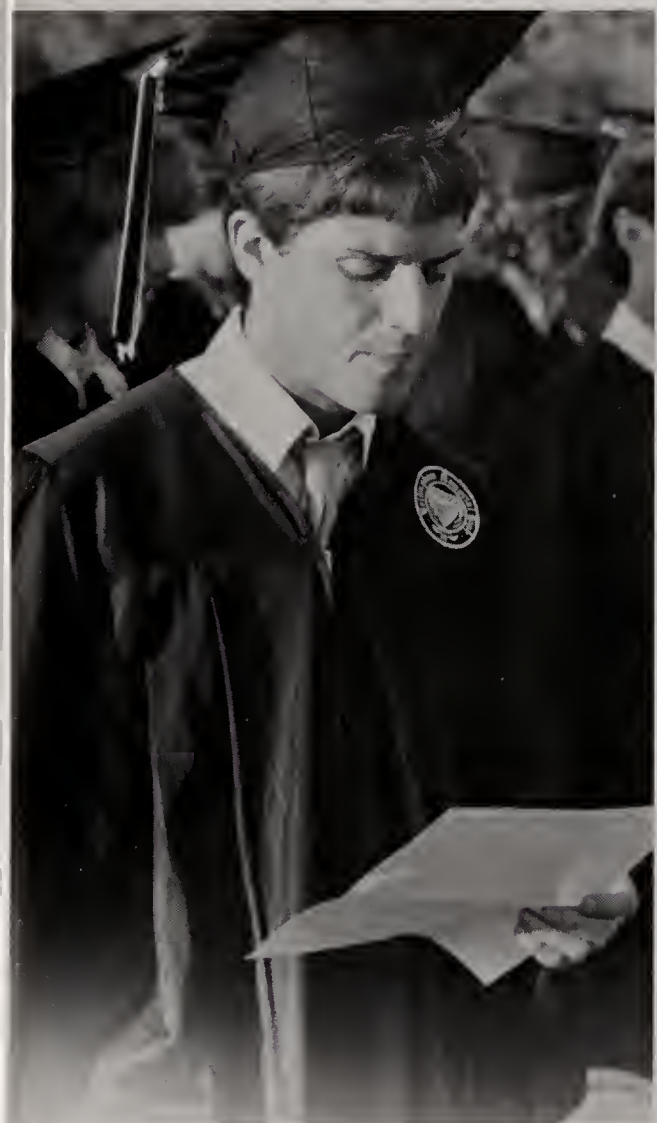

VALEDICTORIAN: Hope Menard

GRADUATION

SALUTATORIAN: Nancy Locklin

We have seen many changes in ourselves during the past four years. We've shared good times and bad. And, on this day, we share the sorrow of saying goodbye.

CLASS HISTORY

In the beginning of our Freshman year, we were adopted by Mr. Clinton and Mrs. Kilburn. We elected four female officers, a tradition that would reign for the next four years. They were: President — Lani Newton, Vice President — Kely Burke, Secretary — Beth Thornton, Treasurer — Linda Hewey.

They led us to be a strong little class, and during the Student Council Spirit Week we won the title of the most spirited class in the school. Some of our fundraising activities include a bake sale at the flea market and some dances.

In Sophomore year, led by President — Lani Newton, Vice President — Sheila Hastie, Secretary — Dyan Loof, Treasurer — Kristin Powell. Of course, who could forget dancing until midnight to the music of Blue Star at our Sophomore Ring Dance? Our first semi-formal; our night in heaven. Our first court was: Queen — Karen Green, King — Bob Mayhew, Princesses — Nancy Ames, Lauren Dumas, Pam Masson, and Carol Peloquin.

In our Junior year, our newly elected officers were President — Sheila Hastie, Vice President — Michele Archambault, Secretary — Fahy Fontaine, Treasurer — Kristin Powell.

At the Christmas party we danced all night and had a great time at the Bocci Club. In May we attended our Junior/Senior Prom at the Royal Plaza Hotel in Marlboro. We danced to the music of Elusive Butterfly, and the staff picked our Royal Court. Queen — Vicki Johnson, King — Jim McDonald, Princesses — Nancy Ames, Janet Charbonneau, Christine Mattson, and Stephanie Smith.

Our Senior year began, our elected officers were: President — Sheila Hastie, Vice President — Michele Archambault, Secretary — Dyan Loof, Treasurer — Kristin Powell.

We started a new tradition — getting up at 6:00 a.m. the day before school started and serving the faculty breakfast.

Our Christmas party was once again held at the Bocci Club. After vacation, Senior year started to fly. The Prom was held at the Royal Plaza Hotel in Marlboro. We started a new "Prom trend" by having a D.J. entertain us. Our chosen court was: Queen — Lani Newton, King — Paul Galipeau, Princesses — Michele Archambault, Kim Boucher, Chris Mattson, and Lori Sherman. When Prom Fever was over, we took our finals, and we were out of school!

Last week, many of us took over for the teachers on Senior Takeover Day, and the next day took off for the Frank Davis Resort. We spent the day having the three F's: Food, Fun, and Frolic!

Now it's here. The week we have all been waiting for. For the past two days we've been attending graduation rehearsals, today is Class Day, tonight we will hold our last function as high school seniors, our Senior Banquet and tomorrow we will hear the first bars of Pomp and Circumstance, and before we know it, we will be B.H.S. graduates.

The past four years would have been impossible without you —
Thanks Guys!

... Time For All Seasons

Across the sands we walked
Like carriers of time
Trying to find a place
Where the sounds of life would rhyme.

Unknown pieces would fit together
That made no sense at all
No sea would be too deep
No mountain would be too tall.

Memories kept forever
Glistening like gold
We will always be together
Never growing old.

There is one thing of which
This happiness is made
Knowing that our love for you
Will never, ever fade.

Good Luck — We Love You!

What is the mark of a good teacher? We do not have to look far to answer this question; our high school is blessed with many exceptional teachers who are pillars of their profession. Their dedication and admiration for their students and career have carried us to this day, when the pride in ourselves, our accomplishments, and school shine forth.

We must besiege this moment to ask ourselves where we would be without these teachers present here this evening, and those who also, through the years have given of themselves unselfishly and freely to ensure our growth and individual success. Only those students who were too immature to accept responsibility and authority, mistakenly put the blame on the teachers for where they are today and where they are going. Those students who opened their minds and hearts, and honestly gave each teacher a sincere chance discovered a special person, a friend above and beyond a teacher, without whom, they might have not had the courage to achieve their highest potential.

Since eighth grade we have taken many immense strides forward, led by many superb teachers, to arrive at this salient day. Many of us have had the same teachers year after year. Each stride these teachers have taken with us merits recognition. It is difficult to put in a few words the gratitude deserved by these teachers; so I ask from each of you at this moment, your remembrance of the teachers who have shared an important period of your life, and who merit your deepest personal admiration and respect, and warmest thanks.

Remember:

The first teachers who welcomed us to the high school and sheltered us from upperclassmen.

The teachers who loved to shoot the breeze with you during free periods.

The teachers who believed in you at times when you found it difficult to believe in yourself.

The advisor whose unmistakable laughter could be heard ringing down the corridor every morning and brightened your day.

The teacher you would always go to see for extra help after school.

The teachers who would continue to teach enthusiastically while their students slept with their faces down on their desks.

The teachers who disciplined you to work hard.

Or maybe the teacher who made you mail him a Pringles chip and drop an egg off the football bleachers.

Remember:

The teachers who would do their best to do anything for you.

The teacher who you always went to for advice.

The teachers who endeavored to instill in you the love of learning.

The teachers who had patience to put up with all our petty excuses and complaints.

The teachers and advisors who encouraged you to be brave and seize all opportunities to find individual success.

The teachers who inspired you to continue your education in a particular area of interest.

The teachers who wrote you several recommendations which got you into the colleges of your choice.

The teacher who could eat his lunch in class while you dissected your fetal pig.

The teachers who answered all questions no matter how off the wall.

The teacher who could not teach class if the light bulb burned out in his overhead.

The teachers who played pranks on their students to make the days a little more tolerable.

The teachers who shared your joys and sorrows, achievements and disappointments.

Or maybe just the teachers who always made you feel like you were special and belonged.

Now it is time to go, and like many, I am finding it hard to leave. The same teachers which overwhelmed us with homework and made us long for graduation, now at this moment of our commencement, are making it difficult for many of us to leave.

I would like to say a few last words which I have selected from Luke 7, Verse 38, to you, the teachers who have shared five of the best years of our lives.

"Give, and it shall be given to you. Good measure pressed down, shaken together, running over, will they pour into the fold of your garment. For the measure you measure with will be measured back to you."

So it is, that before we leave, I would like to return to every teacher, one significant thing they have given to all of us, their love.

*Puff the Magic Dragon
Lived by the sea
And frolicked in the Autumn Mist
In a Land called Honolli*

*Little Jacky Paper
Loved that Rascal Puff
And brought him strings and ceiling wax
And other fancy stuff*

*Together they would travel
On a boat with billowed sails
Jacky kept a lookout perched
On Puff's gigantic tail*

*Noble Kings and princes
Would bow when e'er they came
Pirate ships would low'r their flags
When Puff roared out his name*

*A dragon lives forever
But not so little boys
Painted wings and giant swings
Made way for other toys*

*One gray night it happened
Jacky Paper came no more
And Puff, that mighty dragon
He ceased his fearless roar*

*His head was bent in sorrow
Green scales fell like rain
Puff no longer went to play
Along the Cherry Lane*

*Without his life-long friend
Puff could not be brave
So Puff that mighty dragon
Sadly slipped into his cave.*

L. Lipton*
